

Special Notice

WELIGHT ELECTRONICS CO., LIMITED (collectively referred to as the “WELIGHT”) sales policy regarding imported chips fully complies with all relevant laws and regulations administered by countries engaged in global trade.

In order to better maintain the long-term cooperative and friendly relationship with _____, a special statement is made on the use of imported chips sold by Welight as follows:

Please strictly comply with the US import and export control laws and regulations when using, selling, exporting, re-exporting or transferring imported chips purchased from Welight. Failure to comply with U.S. export control laws and trade regulations may result in civil and criminal penalties for individuals and businesses. Welight hereby remind you. All losses and other legal consequences arising from your non-compliance with US export control laws and regulations shall be borne by your company, and Welight will not bear any responsibility. If your behavior causes losses to Welight, we will claim compensation from you.

Specifically, when you use, sell, export, re-export or transfer imported chips purchased from Welight, you should strictly comply with the following agreements:

1. Do not sell or export to any country or region designated as supporting terrorism or subject to comprehensive trade sanctions by the United States (currently Crimea, Cuba, Iran, North Korea, Sudan, Syria, Russia, Belarus, and any country or region that will be added in the future) imported chips purchased from Welight or controlled items containing imported chips from Welight;
2. Do not sell or export to any individual or entity on the U.S. government's prohibited list (including all kinds of Entity List (EL) - Bureau of Industry and Security, Specially Designated Nationals (SDN) and any other list added in the future) imported chips purchased from Welight or controlled items containing imported chips from Welight;
3. Do not use for any individual or entity for prohibited end uses, including activities related to the development, design, manufacture, construction, operation, or maintenance of nuclear, chemical, or biological weapons, or for any military end user, imported chip products from Welight.

Important announcement: Welight reserves the right to terminate the cooperation and service without prior notice in case the customer fails to comply with the above matters.

My company has read and fully understood the above special notice. My company agrees to accept and comply with the requirements in the above special notice, and comply with the US import and export control laws and regulations. In case of violation, the consequences shall be borne by our company.
